

Journal of Concurrent Disorders

Volume 1. Issue 1. December 2018.

Editorial

Masood Zangeneh, 1

The Relationship Between Internet Addiction and Problem Behaviors Amongst Hong Kong Adolescents: A Three-Year Longitudinal Study

Daniel Tan-lei Shek, Lu Yu, Wenyu Chai 2-22

Gambling, Problem Gambling, and Attitudes Toward Gambling in a Sample of College Students

Aqeel Saeid, Slobodan Petrovski, Kathryn Shea, Jing Shi, Peter Ferentzy, Sarah Cool, Nigel Turner 23-42

The rise of opioid overdose: Is availability of Naloxone within the community the answer we need?

Thalia MacMillan 43-52

Shame to Resilience: Trauma-informed Perspectives on Maternal Substance Use

Heather Howard 53-74

The Impact of Gambling on Families in Hong Kong: The Role of Family Functioning

Elda Mei Lo CHAN, Nicki A. DOWLING, Alun C. JACKSON, Daniel Tan-lei SHEK 75-109

Binge Drinking among Residential Program Youth in Israel: Toward an Understanding of Predictors for Policy and Prevention

Richard Isralowitz, Alexander Reznik, Masood Zangeneh 110-127

Common Myths in the Behavioral Addiction Field

Mark D. Griffiths 128-141

©2018 Journal of Concurrent Disorders.

Journal Website: <https://concurrentdisorders.ca>